THANK YOU

I'm so glad you're here.

Hi, I'm Ginny! I am the owner and photographer here at Bare Elegance Boudoir. It is my mission to create a body-positivity movement in South Carolina with boudoir photography. Why boudoir? Well, it can make you feel empowered and beautiful! In fact, it can be downright life-changing. I am OBSESSED with creating incredible experiences for my clients. Babe, I get it, loving yourself is HARD. But after my first round of selfies in my studio, I was hooked on boudoir and what it can do for womens' confidence. My clients agree that my service builds MASSIVE confidence in just ONE session, and I can personally attest to this as an avid selfie queen. In fact, most of my clients choose to return again and again for more confidence-boosting boudoir portraits as the years go by. I created a service that puts the focus on YOU for a change!
